Donald Riber is very happy, and has a right to be. Donald, as most of you know, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch O. Riber. His particular reason for being happy right now is the fact that he was informed in a letter received last week that his name is on the honor list of the famous "Playhouse," of Pasadena, Calif., where he had been attending the unusual course offered there, since September 1.

There were 114 Juniors in the class, and Donald's name was the only one among the boys to attain the coveted honor during the semester.

You see Donald started in the school last September, and when it came time for him to register for the armed services, he did so, and when his time for pre-induction examination came, he dropped his studies as many others have done, and returned home to enter the service of his country. Recently he took the pre-induction examination, passed, and was assigned to the navy. He will soon enter training in that branch of the service, but as soon as Hitler and Tojo are licked, he plans to resume his studies at the Pasadena Playhouse, where he had been making rapid headway.

I have been watching Donald's progress in music and dramatics, and for years have noted his exceptional talent for the stage, and his ability to do things out of the ordinary, his pleasing personality also being a great aid in his chosen work. His work in school and in church circles has been noteworthy. Among other things he is a talented orator.

His natural ability, and work at Ohio State University and Kent State College made it possible for him to make the hurdles necessary for admission to the exclusive "Pasadena Playhouse" where he was studying directing and producing, for which the "Playhouse" is internationally known, and where students from many countries are enrolled.

While he was at the school, Donald was accorded many unusual honors, such as being given important parts in some of the productions at the main theater, and was one of the few juniors ever given a part for the main stage productions in which well known movie stars and other actors and actresses had a part. He was also enrolled among the 60 singers in the First Methodist Church Choir in Pasadena, after being given an audition which he passed with flying colors. As a student at the Playhouse he was thrown into contact with many prominent persons of the stage and screen. His dancing was taken under the direction of Ruth St. Denis, who also gave him private lessons.

He participated in several Shakespearean plays and was given the part of Romeo in "Romeo and Juliet" on the junior stage. One of the main stage plays in which he was assigned a role ran three weeks.

Donald's schooling at the Playhouse covers a wide field and might easily have stumped a less enthusiastic student. It included: calisthenics, fencing, manners and customs, dramatic literature, voice and speech training, elementary acting, oral interpretation, introduction to the theater, theater technique, survey of dramatics, literature, history of costume designs, theory and practice of dance, music appreciation, and another branch or two that I've forgotten.

If I'm not badly mistaken you are going to hear much of our young friend in his chosen field, even though the war is temporarily interfering with his studies.

WILLKIE-BRICKER FUSS FOR DELEGATES LOOMS

CLEVELAND, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie's entrance into a delegate contest with Gov. John W. Bricker in the three Cleveland congressional districts was in prospect today after a canvass of sentiment by Ralph H. Calk, Willkie's pre-convention manager.

Calk, Republican national committeeman from Oregon, said no formal decision would be made until he consulted with Willkie at the end of next week.

BARKLEY QUILTS SENATE-BREAKS WITH PRESIDENT

Colleagues Shake Hand and Cheer as Chief Executive Bitterly Denounced

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky offered his resignation today as Democratic leader of the senate in a vehement protest against President Roosevelt's tax veto, which he denounced as a "deliberate and calculated assault upon the honesty and integrity" of congressmen.

Barkley threw down the leadership after a bitter and sarcastic attack on the president—titular head of Barkley's own party. He shouted his anger at the president's veto message and at one time termed Mr. Roosevelt's own tax goals as "fantastic."

"Other members may do as they please," Barkley shouted, "I do not propose to take this unjustifiable assault lying down."

As the Kentuckian gave up the leadership he has held since 1937 in the closest harmony with the president, he turned to his colleagues and shouted:

"If the congress of the United States has any self respect left it will override this veto and enact this tax bill into law."

Heavy applause roared out through the historic old chamber as Barkley concluded his speech. Scores of house members standing along the rear wall joined in.

Senator McKellar (D-Tenn) grasped Barkley's hand. Other members, including Republicans, rushed over to shake hands, too.

Barkley said Mr. Roosevelt deliberately sought to belittle congress through the tax bill.

Barkley's peroration was delivered in a solemn hush.

"For 12 years," he shouted, "I have carried to the best of my ability the flag of Franklin Delano Roosevelt. For the past seven years I have carried the flag of the administration as majority leader of this Senate."

"During those years I have borne the flag with pride because I thought that President Roosevelt in himself constituted a dynamic leader in the historic conflict of this country and the world."

Vice President Wallace, who presided during Barkley's remarks, slipped out of the chamber. Senator Murdock (D-Utah) who took over the chair, had great difficulty restoring even a semblance of order.

Rep. Doughton (D-NC), 80-year-old congressional tax leader, stormed back at President Roosevelt's veto of the new revenue bill today, declaring it raises a question of who is to write the tax laws, the president's "irresponsible theorists" or the people's elected representatives.

Doughton, a former proponent of Rooseveltian tax policies, declared the president's advisers "seem to have lost patience with constitutional government by law" and "favor government by executive decree."

The chairman of the tax-framing ways and means committee was joined in a blistering statement by Rep. Knutson of Minnesota, Republican leader on the committee.

Schism Widens

Together, in a further widening of the schism between congress and the White House, they called upon senate and house to override the veto and retain the "constitutional taxing authority" of congress.

Indications now are that congress will override the veto. The vote is set in the house tomorrow.

The president's veto message, which said the tax bill provides relief "not for the needy but for the greedy," set off a congressional revolt.

On the other hand, Chairman Sabath (D-Ill) of the house rules committee declared the constitution gives the president not only the right but "the responsibility and duty" of vetoing legislation he deems not in the best interests of the country.

The president's "advocacy of a

United Nations Unity Reaffirmed By Stalin

LONDON, Feb. 23.—(AP)—All German attempts to "introduce disharmony in the camp of the anti-Hitlerite coalition" are doomed to failure, Premier Stalin told the Russian people today in a special order of the day commemorating the 26th anniversary of the Red Army.

The Russian premier again emphasized his contention Russia has been bearing the brunt of the war effort, but declared:

"All the more hopeless will the situation of Hitlerite Germany be when the main forces of the Allies go into action and the powerful and growing offensive of the Allied states is launched against Hitlerite Germany."

"It should now be clear to all that Hitlerite Germany is advancing inevitably toward catastrophe. The hour of final reckoning for all the crimes committed by the Hitlerites on Soviet soil and in the occupied countries of Europe is approaching."

Stalin's proclamation, which was broadcast by the Moscow radio and recorded here by the Soviet Monitor, declared that in one year the Russians had won

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—(AP)—The Japanese-controlled Manila radio said today "a state of national emergency has been declared in the Philippines" following the assumption of new dictatorial powers by Jose P. Laurel, puppet president of the occupied country.

Earlier the Japanese Domei agency declared Laurel had signed a bill giving him unprecedented power under Japanese guidance to "take and adopt any measure that may be necessary" for the "safety, protection and relief of the population."

Returning Soldiers Need Not Feel Uneasy In America If They Study New Handbook

By DON WHITEHEAD

ALGIERS, Feb. 8.—(AP)—(Delayed)—There is no longer any need for American soldiers returning to the United States to feel uneasy about what they will find in that strange land.

All the answers are condensed in a booklet known as "Soldier's Guide to the United States," compiled by an anonymous member of the 45th division somewhere in Italy.

The booklet is a double reverse friendship with the civilian population. The impression you create will cause the native to judge all soldiers, therefore it is important to be polite, courteous, generous but at all times firm. Naturally, having been overseas, you have automatically become a leading authority on practically everything and your opinions will carry great weight. A practical plan of entering into any conversation is to preface all remarks as follows:

Hitler Still Has Mighty War Machine To Throw Against Invasion

By WES GALLAGHER

LONDON, Feb. 23.—(AP)—How strong is Germany? In the opinion of Allied military leaders—an opinion reflected in Prime Minister Churchill's speech in the House of Commons yesterday—Adolf Hitler still has a mighty war machine at his disposal.

Here is a picture of Nazi military might as compiled from the opinions of two top Allied officers charged with assessing German strength and from information obtained from an anti-Nazi German underground leader aiding the Allied cause.

None of these men believe a combination of Allied bombing and Russian ground successes will cause a German collapse, although they acknowledge the contributions of both.

None of them believes a civilian revolution is possible at the moment.

All are convinced bloody, large scale battles must be waged on the western front to beat the Germans into submission.

All say German reserve stocks are low, but German ground forces have no serious shortage of war materials.

They agree that roughly German military strength is in about the same relative position as it was in 1917 in the last war.

BRICKER OFFERS SIX-PLY PLAN

Ohio Governor Critical of Administration Disorder

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 23.—(AP)—Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, says the executive branch of the Federal government "as now organized, is a vast labyrinthine, shapeless thing of disorder and confusion."

Bricker asserted here last night the "New Deal has been, and is, an inefficient, paternalistic, dictatorial and reactionary administration. As a result our institutions of free government are threatened as never before. It is high time that we recognize the trend and chart a constructive program."

Asserting that "in spite of governmental confusion and chaos, I am confident that we can find our way out," Bricker advocated a "constructive program of governmental action," and offered "six essentials to the establishment of a sound cabinet government and sane executive administration."

He urged a thorough study of

ARMS PLANT IN OHIO TOPS IN PRODUCTION

CLEVELAND, Feb. 23.—(AP)—A single plant in the Cleveland ordnance district produces more guns in two weeks than were produced by all American arsenals in the entire last year, Lieut. Col. T. H. Eickhoff, technician with the Cleveland ordnance district, informed members of the Cleveland Grays.

Col. Eickhoff did not disclose what kind of guns they were. The new 10-inch bayonet, better than the old 16-inch for jungle fighting, is being produced here in enormous quantities, he told members of the 107-year-old military organization last night.

ICE JAM IN RIVER CAUSES FLASH FLOOD

PAINESVILLE, Feb. 23.—(AP)—A flash flood caused by an ice jam at the mouth of the Chagrin River inundated the homes of an estimated 15 families early today in the Chagrin harbor area near Willoughby, 14 miles west of here.

A coast guard detail from the Fairport station, under Warrant Officer Thomas E. Daly, transported approximately 25 persons in boats from bugged bungalow-type dwellings to a nearby rural tavern.

Mrs. Ella Hood of a Red Cross disaster unit's motor corps reported many evacuees were only night clothing. Those rescued included a six-month-old boy. The Red Cross issued a call for contributions of dry clothing.

Tokyo Could Not Be Destroyed Easily and Other Attacks Essential, Too

By CLYDE A. FARNSWORTH

HEADQUARTERS OF THE 14TH U. S. AIR FORCE, China, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Destruction comparable to that wrought by the Allies in western Europe's industrial centers could be achieved against Japan with one-tenth of the plane-strength and bomb-weight, according to an authoritative appraisal available here today.

Information available to the 14th U. S. Air force command, however, suggests a contradiction of the popular pre-Pearl Harbor belief that Tokyo itself could readily be destroyed. Tokyo is a modern city with a great deal of western-style construction and likely would not go up in flames readily.

Moreover, Japan's war potential cannot be broken by attacks on Tokyo, it is believed here. The situation calls for attacks on centers of her heavy industry. There—as in Kobe and Osaka—one finds flimsy construction that is an ideal target for incendiaries and blockbusters.

It appears certain the main assault on Japanese production will be aimed directly at home-land factories, rather than at industrial subsidiaries in Manchuria, north central China, despite the fact Manchuria is virtually a self-contained unit for production and processing of raw materials.

Yank Air Attacks Weaken Jap Base

By MORRIS LANDSBERG

By The Associated Press

Allied air operations yielded evidence today of success in the steady campaign to knock out Rabaul as the pivotal base for war-worn Japanese territory in the Southwest Pacific.

In another significant development, the Southeast Asia command announced Allied troops are seizing the initiative from the Japanese on the Arakan front in Burma.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur reported the Japanese failed to send up a single interceptor plane to oppose Sunday's 52-ton bombing of Lakunai Airdrome in furtherance of the daily assault on Rabaul at the northeast tip of New Britain Island.

Reconnaissance showed the lowest number of planes and ships ever spotted at Rabaul, indicating a withdrawal by the enemy as the result of recent heavy losses. Allied attacks have cost the Japanese 55 vessels sunk and probably more than 300 aircraft shot down in February.

Both in the New Britain area and in the Northern Solomons, Allied naval and air units added to the toll of Japanese barges which President Roosevelt said yesterday probably amounted to a thousand in the last year, accounting for a large number of enemy personnel.

The Chief Executive praised what he termed amazing cooperation among the armed services in the Marshall Islands and Truk operations—operations carried out

London underwent its fourth air attack in five nights as German raiders broke through the capital's defenses last night to scatter explosives and firebombs at random over the city.

At one time six enemy planes were caught in the beams of

THREE EXECUTED FOR KILLINGS IN THIS COUNTY

Other Cases in Fayette County Recalled by Collett Case

Approach of the James W. Collett first degree murder trial, growing out of the triple murder of the Elmer McCoy family, and the fact that one of the penalties carried with a conviction would be the death sentence, recalls other first degree murder cases in Fayette County and the results.

Three killers, found guilty of first degree murder in the county, were sentenced to death and subsequently executed, the records disclose.

The first man executed was William G. W. Smith of New Petersburg, who was hanged on a scaffold in the old jail yard here, December 14, 1866, for the murder in October, 1865, of his brother-in-law, John Gray, a Concord Township farmer, whose body was found near the old Trimble gravel pit a short distance west of what is now the Sam Marting home. The object was money and revenge. Gray was beaten to death with an ax, and his body left in the brush near the gravel pit. John Adams, an accomplice, drew 10 years in the penitentiary for his part. The rope with which Smith was hanged, and the black cap that was pulled over his face, are still in existence.

The second man executed was Leo Halterman, diminutive farm hand, who, on December 23, 1926, shot and killed his half brother, Charles Halterman at the Halterman home near Blessings Crossing in Jefferson Township, and then beat Mrs. Charles Halterman to death with the gun barrel when she came to the rescue of her husband.

The crime took place at night after Leo, suffering from what he declared was ill treatment on the part of his brother, had induced Charles to go to the chicken-house under pretext of thieves being among the chickens. Once outside he shot Charles twice with a shotgun. Mrs. Halterman ran to the rescue of her husband, was attacked and beaten to death. Halterman's body was found near where he fell and Mrs. Halterman's badly mutilated body was found in the dooryard.

Leo Halterman made a confession, was later tried, convicted, and on March 5, 1927, sentenced to death. He was executed in the electric chair at the Ohio Penitentiary June 17, 1927. He was buried in Pike County. He was sentenced by Judge C. A. Reid.

The third man to pay the extreme penalty for murder in Fayette County was Everett Jones, native of McConnesville, O., for shooting to death Robert Lindsey, restaurant keeper at his place of business in Jeffersonville, the night of July 4, 1936, when Lindsey resisted after Jones sought to hold him up. Lindsey's body was found the following morning, slumped behind the counter.

Jones was later arrested in Cleveland, along with Walter Barnes, tried, convicted, and on December 9, 1937, was sentenced by Judge H. M. Rankin to be executed March 25. The execution was carried out accordingly. Jones was buried in "Potters' Field," Columbus, among the unnamed, unmarked graves of many others.

There have been numerous other first degree murder trials in the county, in which prison terms were meted out, or the accused found not guilty.

The Collett case is the first in which three people were murdered in the county, and by rea-

CHANEY RETIRED BY OIL COMPANY

Former Resident Is Among 335 Annuitants

After thirty years of service with The Standard Oil Company of Ohio, Clarence W. Chaney, South Charleston, has retired and joined the company's 335 annuitants.

Chaney began working for the company in 1913 as a driver in Washington Court House. In this capacity he drove horses for a number of years. He was later made a sub-agent and in 1933 a tank truck driver. He held this position at the Springfield bulk plant at the time of his retirement.

Chaney will be the guest of honor at a luncheon to be given in Springfield on March 1st. C. H. Margraf, Division Manager of the Dayton Division will preside and make the principal talk.

With the coming of spring, Chaney expects to start active work on his victory garden. He is the father of six children, one of whom, Robert, is in the U. S. Navy.

DEFENSE CALLS WITNESSES IN COLLETT CASE

State Also Files List of Three Wanted as Witnesses

James N. Linton, one of the defense counsel in the James W. Collett case which begins Monday, was in this city Wednesday and filed a list of 17 witnesses to be summoned to testify for the defense.

About the same time Prosecutor John B. Hill filed the names of three persons to be summoned to testify for the State.

It is expected that both sides will file a list of additional witnesses later.

The State's witnesses filed are: Lieut. George Eckerman and Captain A. W. Eggert, of the Toledo police department and Katherine Crichtfield, stenographer, Toledo.

Defense witnesses include: From Fayette County—Asa W. Potts, neighbor of the McCoy's, Dewey Claytor, farm hand who found the bodies; Gerald Stevens, 514 E. Paint Street, Weldon Spurlock, 213 W. Market Street and Justice of the Peace G. H. Worrell before whom Collett was arraigned. Worrell is to bring his Justice of the Peace docket and all original papers in the case of State of Ohio against James W. Collett.

This brought to 347 the number of German planes destroyed by the American air forces in their three big battles since Sunday. The Germans asserted they destroyed 119 American planes yesterday, including 95 four-engined bombers.

Peace Move Stalls

Prospects of peace between Russia and Finland lessened as Juhu Paasikivi, giving the impression of a man whose mission was none too successful, returned to Helsinki from Stockholm. Finland resumed trade negotiations with Germany and Russia widened her range of bombings of the Baltic state.

Coastal batteries dueling heavily across the English Channel, London had its fourth air raid in five nights.

The Pope appealed to warring nations to spare Rome from destruction.

Yugoslav partisans, so warmly praised by Prime Minister Churchill, swarmed down on the Germans south of Sarajevo inflicting major casualties, Marshal Tito declared.

"It should be clear to all that Hitlerite Germany is advancing inevitably toward catastrophe," Marshal Stalin declared as his armies drove west.

Bodies Litter Streets

The Red army capture of Kriovoi Rok littered the streets and approaches with "thousands of enemy dead," the Russians said. The victory opened routes of conquest to Kherson and Nikolaev on the Black Sea 95 miles away and to the metropolis of Odessa 155 miles southwest.

More spectacular advances were made in the north where 300 hamlets were captured west of Lake Ilmen and Kholm. The important rail and road junction of Dno was brought within ten-mile artillery range in the wide advance from Pskov.

Stalin declared the Red army in a year had advanced more than 1,000 miles in places and captured 77,000 square miles and 13,000 populated places. This, he said, meant that three-fourths of the Russian overrun by the Germans had been recaptured, suggesting that only about 25,000 square miles still was under the German bootjack.

Yanks Stop Germans

American troops threw back two localized German attacks west of Cisterna yesterday. Allied headquarters announced today.

Nazi artillery lobbed shells at the nerve center of Anzio and other beachhead objectives, and 130 German planes hit at ground troops, but the Allies countered with 1,600 aerial sorties, and gunfire against enemy troop and vehicle movements.

The Germans tried to infiltrate around Fifth Army outposts on two peaks northwest of Cassino, but withdrew under cover of a smoke screen when Allied artillery opened fire. Snowfalls hampered movements in the mountains.

British guns shelled enemy troops and vehicles near the Nazis' main concentration point of Carroceto. Allied group troops could see the Germans busily moving their forces in rear areas, indicating they were preparing for a renewed assault after repulse of his second major offensive last week end.

The communiqué also mentioned that the heavy bombers had blasted the airfield at Zara and harbors at Zara and Sibenik.

Fifty enemy planes were destroyed during the day for a loss of 15 Allied aircraft, it was disclosed.

The Germans sorely needed a breathing spell, for they suffered the heaviest casualties of any comparable period of the Italian campaign during their four-day assault from last Wednesday through Saturday.

One American battalion alone counted 500 German dead in front of its position southeast of Carroceto, where some of the bitterest fighting took place.

The German 114th Jaeger (rifle) division suffered particularly heavy losses. These troops were reported to have scattered in panic when Allied guns opened up with heavy fire.

GERMANY AND FINLAND REPORTED MAKING DEAL

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 23—(AP)—

Trade discussions between Germany and Finland for a 1944 agreement were reported today to have been opened at Helsinki Feb. 18.

It was considered here these talks may have a strong bearing on current Finnish peace negotiations since Germany has supplied Finland with considerable quantities of food and materials in the past.

MEMORIAL TO WAR DEAD GOLD STAR MOTHERS' AIM

WHEELING, W. Va., Feb. 23—(AP)—

The Ohio Valley Chapter of the Gold Star Mothers is campaigning for $4,000 to erect a memorial here commemorating the men and women who lost their lives in this war.

The campaign opened yesterday in Wheeling and the Ohio valley towns of Martins Ferry, Bellaire and Bridgeport.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

British Prime Minister Churchill's unadorned war review before the House of Commons yesterday was another of his masterful efforts and one which must increase Allied confidence in the state of our global conflict.

Mr. Churchill is indeed an inspiring speaker. For twenty-seven years now I've been listening in the gallery of Commons to his brilliant addresses, or reading them in the world's press, almost hoping whimsically at times that he would display sufficient weakness to deliver a bad one, but thus far he has failed me.

Without encouraging over-confidence—indeed without warning of hard days to come—the Prime Minister's summary clearly showed that we are on the road to victory both in Europe and in the Orient. However, he displayed his usual astuteness in refusing to predict when the European war will end. He couldn't guarantee it would be this year, or yet that it would extend into next year, but (just a filip of cheer) it "may not be so far away."

Of far greater importance than the date of war's end was his assurance that the Big Three—Britain, Russia and the United States—were "absolutely united." Indeed, as I see it, this was the outstanding point in his speech.

Unity among these three dominant powers is vital not only to the winning of the war but to peace. A rupture in the partnership likely would mean a third world conflict.

Mr. Churchill assured Commons that "none of the ground made good at Moscow or Teheran" has been lost despite disquieting articles in the Soviet press. He might have added that there also have been critical editorials in the American and British press. These rather sharp exchanges have caused no little public concern, and it's good to have the Prime Minister's reassurance.

With this I think we must link Churchill's insistence that Britain is intensely interested in maintaining Poland's independence—a statement which applies equally to the United States. Now that's vastly important, for I take it to mean that while the western Allies recognize that unity among the Big Three is essential to peace, yet this doesn't involve the abject surrender of high principles by any one of the trio. We stand erect.

Mr. Churchill was of course answering the fear expressed by some that Russia intends to take over not only the Polish territory she occupied in 1939 but perhaps other Polish territory as well. He asserted his conviction that repeated Moscow declarations for a strong, independent Poland "represent the settled policy of the Soviet Union."

The Prime Minister confirmed that he and Stalin had agreed at Teheran "upon the need for Poland to obtain compensation at the expense of Germany, both in the north and west." This means that the Allies have contemplated giving a reconstituted Poland the German province of East Prussia and some territory adjacent to Poland on the west. So at least this much dismemberment of the Reich is under consideration.

At the same time Churchill reiterated that the unconditional surrender which has been demanded "does not mean the German people will be enslaved or destroyed. Unconditional surrender means that the victors will have a free hand. It does not mean they wish to blot out Germany from among the nations of Europe."

This presumably was intended to counteract Hitler's propaganda that the Allies intend to enslave the Germans and destroy the Reich. By instilling such a fear in the mind of the German public, the Nazi dictator hopes to prolong the war and save his own hide.

ROTARIANS HEAR INSURANCE TALK HERE TUESDAY

M. L. Clark Explains Policies, Complex Problems Involved In Business

Rotarians today have a picture of the insurance business, ranging from its beginning in the 16th century to the complex problems facing policyholders after M. L. Clark spoke at the civic club's Tuesday luncheon meeting at the Country Club.

Clark explained technicalities of the business and told Rotarians the difference in the types of policies. He answered questions in an informal quiz session after he finished his speech. Insurance began in the 16th century through the craft and workman's guilds, he related. Clark was introduced by Robert C. Haigler.

Paul Pennington, Ph. M. 3-c, stationed at Great Lakes, Ill., and Boatswain 2-c Frank Weade, home on a 20 day leave from Puerto Rico, were guests at the meeting. Pennington is a former member of the club here. Both men spoke briefly of their experiences in the service.

F. E. Hill, chairman of the War Finance Committee, reminded Rotarians the county is still $115,000 short of its $906,000 Fourth War Loan quota. He urged that extra bond purchases planned be made before the last minute in the drive.

Fred Rost, who attended the Xenia Rotary Club last week, reported the club had not forgotten it owed the club here a dinner, after the attendance contest between the two in January. A tentative plan for the celebration, set up Tuesday and awaiting the Xenia Rotarians' approval, is for the club here to furnish the dinner in WCH and for the Xenia organization to provide entertainment. Lack of a place to have the banquet halted preparations in Xenia.

A. B. Murray, vice-president who conducted the meeting in the absence of President Carroll Halliday, called for a minute's silent tribute to Halliday's brother-in-law, A-C Robert Frost, who was killed in an airplane crash Tuesday morning.

Rotary speaker next week will be Clare E. Cook, returned from Red Cross work in North Africa during the Tunisian campaign. A Columbus Rotarian, Cook is secretary-treasurer of the Republic-Mutual Insurance Company. He will speak on his experiences in Africa.

will soon make your black market connections and do all right.

DRINK: The natives are moderate drinkers and the sight of a drunken man creates consternation. The shortages being what they are, naturally they want to know where the hell he got it.

DRESS: Clothing is strictly rationed and a vest is a rare sight indeed. Trouser cuffs are generally obtained by bribing certain officials.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SPORTS: Cinemas range from first class to mediocre. Baseball and football are the leading sports. Baseball is played by having nine men on each side. Football differs in that it has two more men on each side.

THE FAMILY AND WOMEN: Like ourselves, to the American family life is everything. It is true that in recent years young girls have acquired more liberty in their movements, but it is rare when a decent girl will smile when you whistle at her. Don't, therefore, think you are going to find it easy to pick up a respectable girl without running a risk of a first class row.

LANGUAGE: The American language is difficult but you will soon pick up enough to make your wants understood. As to pronunciation, some vowels are pronounced separately and then again others are not.

CHARACTER: The American is highly individualistic, but is friendly and courteous. For example, if you call up an American and say, "can you line up a couple of dames for tonight?" you will generally find out that yours will turn out to be an awful looking dog.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES: One kilo equals two pounds, two pounds equals one kilo. One quart—you won't see this much. Practically everything comes in fifths now.

WATER SUPPLY: Drink only water which is obtained from an engineer's water unit. As these are practically impossible to locate, you better lay off the stuff.

HYGIENE AND HEALTH: Malaria, take aspirin tablet; sandfly fever, take aspirin tablet and dysentery, take aspirin tablet.

WATERBORNE DISEASES: These diseases are borne by water, take aspirin tablet.

CITIES: The principal cities are New York.

With the above hints you should get along quite well with the Americans. One splendid way to ingratiate yourself with soldiers you will meet there is to ask if they've been overseas. When they reply in the negative, just sneer.

The president's proposals "would threaten the solvency of all business and undermine its ability to provide jobs when the war ends. Unless this bill becomes law, the way will be paved for many large corporations to make excess profits out of the war."

Margaret Jean Wikle and William Fife Exchange Vows In Wilmington Tuesday Eve

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Popular Young Couple in Marriage; Attending Were Members of Immediate Family

Coming as a complete surprise to many friends and relatives here and in Wilmington is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Margaret Jean Wikle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wikle, of Leesburg, Avenue, this city, to William Fife, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Fife, of Wilmington, Ohio.

The double ring vows were exchanged in the parsonage of the Christian Church in Wilmington, Tuesday evening at seven-thirty o'clock by the Rev. O. L. Hull.

The ceremony was witnessed only by the parents of both the bride and bridegroom, and also the bride's grandfather, Elmer Rowe, of this city.

Attending the couple were Miss Georgibel Graves, as maid of honor, and Mr. Frederick McDermott, of Wilmington, as best man.

For her marriage the popular and engaging young bride chose a three-piece suit of contrasting shades of brown, with brown accessories accentuating the chic ensemble. A corsage of yellow narcissus was pinned to the shoulder.

The maid of honor wore a pastel-green two-piece suit, with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Wikle, was wearing a powder blue crepe frock with black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of sweet peas. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Fife, wore a navy blue frock with which she combined black accessories and a corsage of sweetpeas.

Following the ceremony, the newly-weds left on a short wedding trip and upon their return, will be at home to their friends on a farm near Wilmington, which will be in readiness then.

The new Mrs. Fife is a graduate of Washington High School with the class of 1942, while the bridegroom graduated from Wilmington High School in 1939 and attended Madison University, Madison, Wis. Since then he has been engaged in farming in Clinton County with his father.

Tea and Kitchen Shower Honor Marilyn McCoy and Mrs. Robert Moyer Tuesday

Miss Mary E. Browning, Assisted by Mrs. John Browning, Miss Fannie Browning, Entertain at Home

Miss Mary Elizabeth Browning, always a gracious and charming young hostess entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Browning near Bloomingburg, Tuesday evening with a gala George Washington tea and kitchen shower.

The occasion was to honor Mrs. Robert Moyer (Juanita Purcell) a recent bride who has been feted several times by her numerous friends, and Miss Marilyn McCoy, pretty and popular young bride-elect, who will be married at the Washington Country Club on March 7 to Charles Hall.

For the affair Mrs. Moyer chose a spring print frock while Miss McCoy was wearing a light blue wool frock.

When the guests assembled at the Browning home, entertaining games and contests were conducted by the hostess who was assisted throughout the evening by Mrs. John Browning and Miss Fannie Browning. At the close of the games and contests Mrs. Walter E. McCoy and Mrs. Robert J. Eppley, Jr., were awarded the prizes.

A George Washington tea was then served in the dining room and presiding at the prettily appointed table was Mrs. Roy Purcell. A red, white and blue color scheme was carried out in the appointments and decorations and centering was an arrangement of three tapers, carrying out the color scheme also. Their glowing lights made a gracious setting for the group of attractive and vivacious guests.

A huge array of attractively wrapped gifts were also placed in the dining room and a congenial and jolly hour was spent by the guests of honor unwrapping their many practical and attractive remembrances. Their response was made by each in their own most charming manner.

The invited guests were the guests of honor, Miss Laura Schadel, Miss Helen Crampton, Mrs. John Alton, Mrs. Robert Eppley, Jr., Miss Wilma Noble, Miss Cassette Larimer, Mrs. Hazel Moyer, Mrs. Walter E. McCoy, Mrs. Roy Purcell, Mrs. Vern Sheley, Miss Donna Marilyn McCoy, Miss Rebecca Coffey, Mrs. Cary Parrett, Miss Dorothy McCoy, Miss Edna Ann Emery, Miss Marjorie Rapp and Miss Margaret Ashley.

Both Young and Old Appetites Like This Dish

When young and old appetites alike come marching home these days, they usually come "double-time." In many homes of the city the family schedule of arrival is irregular, therefore special care is required to have dinner ready, yet unspoiled, by "keeping warm" on the range.

For days when it is hard to know what time the family is expected for dinner, casserole dishes are suggested, as a whole meal can be cooked in one casserole, thereby saving gas in the present gas shortage. The food will need little watching and it may be kept warm and attractive in the oven, although the meal is delayed.

Here is a favorite casserole dish in many households:

- Pork Sausage Casserole
1 dozen sausage links
4 large carrots
4 medium sized onions
2 green peppers
1-3 cup tomato catsup
1-3 cup water
Brown sausage in frying-pan, draining off fat frequently. Dice carrots finely and chop onions and green peppers. Place sausage in casserole, and cover with carrots and green pepper, and onions which have been well mixed. Make a sauce of the catsup and water and pour over top. Cook covered in a moderate oven (350 F.) about one hour. Uncover and allow to brown during the last 15 minutes of baking.

Fayette County To Observe World Day of Prayer

The World Day of Prayer Service which is being observed in this and other Christian nations on various days in the near future, is to receive much attention from the churches of Fayette County on Friday, February 25.

Special programs are being outlined for the various gatherings. In Washington C. H. local church-goers will gather at the First Baptist Church next Friday afternoon from three until four o'clock.

In Bloomingburg the entire community is to gather at the First Presbyterian Church at two o'clock Friday for this World Day of Prayer service while in Jeffersonville an afternoon service will be held Friday at each church in that city and an evening service under the direction of Mrs. S. C. Creamer at 7:30 P. M. will be held at the Jeffersonville Methodist Church.

In Good Hope the World Day of Prayer will be held at the Good Hope Methodist Church one week from this coming Friday or March 3. This service program begins at 7:30 P. M.

This World Day of Prayer is being observed every year in fifty countries on this globe on each Friday in Lent—the first service of the morning is held as the sun reaches the Fiji Islands, the last in the evening on St. Lawrence Island, thirty miles from the Arctic Circle. Those with servicemen "Somewhere in the Pacific" will welcome this opportunity to pray for them and their new neighbors. Those who have delighted in quoting Walt Whitman's saying that "One of the most hopeful and remarkable things about the United States is the quality of its women" would do well to see that all keep in the spiritual aspects of Christian growth the world's best hope.

The World Day of Prayer service really began in the year 1887, when Mrs. Darwin H. James called the Presbyterian women in the U. S. A. together to pray for their national missions. Year by year other denominations joined in this day of prayer for this country. Then two popular women with wide vision and organizing enthusiasm, took a trip around the world, and discovered in every land that church women felt identical devotion to the Kingdom of God and identical courage in meeting the Divine call forever sounding in their ears. On their return to America, Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery and Mrs. Henry W. Peabody suggested a day of joint prayers for home and foreign work. Then when women in Great Britain, Europe, Canada, Australia and South America adopted the first Friday in Lent as a time when Orient and Occident and Africa would pray together, the significant word, "WORLD", was prefixed to the name of the "DAY OF PRAYER" with one universal worship service used everywhere to bind us all into one family.

County Cage Tourney Opens

Bloomington, defending the 1943 county cage crown, goes into action Wednesday night (tonight) against the favored Millers as the annual county net tourney starts rolling in WHS gymnasium.

The Madison boys and Jeffersonville's quintet, stand at the top of the win-loss ladder, each with a 4-2 record. But the Burgers, breaking even on wins and losses, are out to keep the county title, and that may give them the added spark to produce a string of wins.

Jeff is to tangle with the Wayne five, which has corralled only one victory this season.

Eliminations in the junior high tourney will set-off the Wednesday contests, beginning at 7 P.M.

The same playing combinations as in the varsity contests are slated.

An added attraction Saturday afternoon will be a foul shot from one boy and one girl from each school. Contestants in this event may be from any class in the high school, Gilbert Bidle, tournament manager, said.

Robert Creamer's Millers are headlined by Bower, junior for-

Bloomington basketballers, shepherded by Ray Gorman, a first-timer at the tournament, may present Dean Byrd, junior forward, Dumford, freshman forward, Plummer, senior center, Morris, sophomore guard and Don Byrd, junior guard.

Bloomington has won half the trophies in county cage events for the past ten years. Varsity winners since 1934 are:

1943 Bloomington
1942 Jeffersonville
1941 Bloomington
1940 Bloomington
1939 Bloomington
1938 Jeffersonville
1937 Bloomington
1936 Jeffersonville
1935 Wayne
1934 Madison

Woodland has been one of the key men in the development of harness horse racing in the popular eastern section of the country. Long an advocate of modernization of the sport, he had a part in putting some revolutionary changes in the sport in effect, chief of which was the racing of horses on a dash plan instead of heats.

A letter just received from him says the thermometer registered 22 below zero Saturday morning and that in spite of the cold he had been taking in some of the harness horse racing held on the ice of Lake Placid and Lake

Harness Race Handicapper From Here Writes Condition For Saratoga Meet

Frank Woodland, who put on Fayette County's "Golden Jubilee Fair" here about ten years ago during the depression years when the regular event was put on ice to await better times, today is at the Saratoga Raceway, at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., writing conditions for the harness horse races which are scheduled to start at the famous Spa on June 28 and run for 52 nights.

Woodland, who went from his home in Bloomington years ago to take an active part in the harness racing sport, has risen to one of the most responsible places in the business of conducting race meets—that of racing secretary at one of the country's biggest and most fashionable parks. He has a reputation among horsemen and patrons alike of being one of the best, if not the best, handicapper of harness horses of today.

As a young man, he broke into his career in the harness racing world with a small paper, devoted exclusively to the sport and published here. Later, he made a small fortune when he reopened the old Cranwood track at Cleveland, but he lost it in the Florida boom.

During the last few years,

Woodland said the meeting for which he is now writing the race conditions will distribute an estimated $250,000 in purses, with $133,500 set aside for the 30 main attractions.

At the Saratoga Raceway, Woodland explained, there has been and will be mutual betting and added racing is on the same general pattern as that used for runners with each race an individual event.

-Spying- On Sports

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—(AP)—George Trautman, Jack Zeller and Warren Giles, the professional committee to look into high school baseball, might do worse than take a good look at the Illinois State High School Tournament next Spring. Its entry of 88 teams isn't big for a state the size of Illinois, but reports from Peoria, where Coach Dick Baxter originated the event, say there's plenty of enthusiasm and the committee might spread it to other states. In fact, one of the big attractions for the kids is the presence of major league scouts at the finals. The tourney was only started in 1940, but the finals, played at Oak Park and Cicero the past two years, draw crowds of 5,000 or more.

Markets and Finance

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Liquidation in rye sent that grain down for losses of more than a cent in a generally weak grain market today. Selling was inspired by reports that the prospects of using rye in industrial alcohol production was remote because its use would decrease the output of that important war commodity.

Improvement of the winter wheat outlook in the Ohio Valley, reported by the Weather Bureau, and a weak cash wheat market at Minneapolis acted to ease bread cereal futures. Oats were lower with other grains. Bookings of corn were heavy at close to 200,000 bushels, a fact which tended to discourage traders in other feed grain futures.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Liquidation in rye sent that grain down for losses of more than a cent in a generally weak grain market today. Selling was inspired by reports that the prospects of using rye in industrial alcohol production was remote because its use would decrease the output of that important war commodity.

Improvement of the winter wheat outlook in the Ohio Valley, reported by the Weather Bureau, and a weak cash wheat market at Minneapolis acted to ease bread cereal futures. Oats were lower with other grains. Bookings of corn were heavy at close to 200,000 bushels, a fact which tended to discourage traders in other feed grain futures.

DAY'S ACTIVITIES IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Aircraft and rails again moved forward in today's stock market as the general run of industrial leaders drifted within a narrow range.

Advances ranged from fractions to around a point in these favored groups. Volume was moderate.

War shares, apart from the aircrafts and carriers, showed little response to Prime Minister Churchill's cautious handling of the question as to how much longer the war would last, but his general appraisal of the situation in his report to the House of Commons made a good impression in the financial sector.

Bonds were irregular with selling in the recently strong reorganization rails. Commodities were narrow.

First Steps Taken For Post-War Program Here

PLANS OUTLINED TO ASSURE JOBS AT CED MEETING

Survey of Past and Present And Appraisal of Future To Be Made

First steps for preparing this community for the inevitable changes in social and economic life following the winning of the war were taken by the newly organized Committee for Economic Development (CED) at its initial meeting in the offices of the Brandenburg Motor Sales Co., Clinton Avenue, Tuesday evening.

Ray Brandenburg, chairman of the county CED by virtue of his appointment by the district chairman, explained at the outset of the meeting that the primary purpose of the organization was to avoid a depression like the one which followed the ending of the first World War by providing jobs for "every employable person" in peacetime independent enterprise.

To this end, the chairman explained, the CED was dedicated to make survey, first of all, to determine conditions now and, in the light of data for past years, prepare estimates for post-war employment needs.

He pointed out there would be more than 2,000 men and a few women coming back from service with the armed forces who would have to be given first consideration. In addition, he reminded that there would be many more who have been at wartime jobs for whom places would have to be made here—their homes.

The chairman emphasized that the score of businessmen called into the first meeting was only the nucleus for the county CED and explained that the membership undoubtedly would be enlarged as the work progressed. The small group was called, he said, because it was felt a larger gathering would be unwieldy in getting started. It was made plain that the CED is not a government organization, and that, on the contrary, it is made up of businessmen who are acting to protect the nation's economic structure on their own initiative. Participation, he said, is voluntary and added that full cooperation was anticipated because "it is working for the common good of the community."

The foundation for the CED's big job is to be laid by five key sub-committees, which are to make surveys to guide the plans for the future post-war cushion.

On the steering committee, which is to act as the clearing house for the data compiled by the other sub-committees, are the general chairman, Brandenburg, Howard S. Harper, Harold McCord, Ralph Nisley, George A. Steen, W. W. Montgomery, T. Harold Craig and Ward Miller.

The employment committee, headed by McCord, with M. J. Whitfield, L. C. Coffman and W. P. Noble as the other members already chosen, is to make an employment survey for 1940, for last year and get estimates of employment for after the war. To get this, a mass of information is to be compiled from confidential reports by every employer, large and small, from big manufacturing plants to the smallest retail store. Members of the committee face the task of contacting all of them in what is probably the most comprehensive canvasses of the five. In a nutshell, this committee's function is to get information necessary to calculate the probable post-war labor force and the possible number of jobs available after the war.

The farm income committee, headed by Ralph Nisley and supported at the start by Montgomery, Ford Ervin and W. E. Sollars, is to gather data on the number of farms, those rented and those owned operated, the number of farm hands, number and kinds of livestock and crops for 1939, for last year and expected for this year.

Man Had Brick In His Stomach for 10 Years One man recently stated that for 10 years he felt like he had a brick in his stomach. This feeling was due to the lump of undigested food he always had inside of him. He was weak, worn out, headachy, swollen with gas and terribly constipated. Recently he started taking ERB-HELP and says the feeling like a brick in his stomach disappeared the second day. Bowels are regular now, gas and headaches are gone and he feels like a new man.

ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering. Get ERB-HELP. Fahey's Drug Store.

NEIGHBORS GIVEN WARNING BY JUDGE

Woman Is Placed Upon Her Good Behavior

When Edith Bennett appeared before Judge R. H. Sites, in police court, Tuesday afternoon, to face a charge of disorderly conduct filed by Dorothy Estle, Judge Sites heard both sides of the affair and then released Mrs. Bennett on good behavior. He also sounded a warning that any further trouble between the two women, who are neighbors, would result in something more serious if their difficulties reached his court.

During the recent mild weather, Captain Jess Ellis said several complaints of neighborhood quarrels had been made. "There is usually more trouble among neighbors during the mild weather than cold weather," Captain Ellis said.

Expectations for the post-war years. From this information, estimates of farm income are to be made as an index to post-war purchasing power from which plans for civilian production and sales can be made.

The community markets committee, under the leadership of Steen as chairman, Carroll Halliday, Max Thomas and Herbert E. Wilson, is to compile a survey to calculate what people here will buy after the war and how they plan to pay for it. This will necessitate a canvass of typical homes in every income bracket with blanks to be filled out. These reports will not be signed and will be, as other canvasses of this type, strictly confidential.

The purchasing power committee has been divided into two committees. Montgomery and Jean Nisley will handle the county survey and Craig and W. W. Humphries, the city. The purpose of this double-committee will be to determine the financial status of the community as of 1940 and last year to make estimates of post-war buying power. In connection, information is to be gathered on bank deposits and debt reduction for comparisons and estimates.

The public employment committee, headed by Ward Miller, with Frank S. Jackson, W. L. Stambaugh and Robert E. Willis, is to make a study of and get information on public improvement plans as the basis for calculating post-war employment possibilities.

The consensus of the committee at its first meeting was that the first phase of its work, that of making the multiple-survey and compiling the data into reports, should be completed within 30 days after it gets under way. When the sub-committees will swing into action is conjectural and depends largely on when blanks and other necessary papers are received.

The work to be done by the CED here is only a small part of a nationwide survey being made by similar community CED groups, Brandenburg explained.

During the first World War, the U. S. provided Allied nations with about three billion pounds of meat and 300 million bushels of wheat a year.

FARMERS HERE GO TO ANNUAL CO-OP MEETING

Discussion by Livestock Producing and Marketing Experts on Program

Representatives of the patrons of the Washington C. H. branch of the Producers Livestock Co-operative Association today were in Columbus to compare notes with representatives of other sections of the state at the association's annual meeting in the Neil House.

Among the more than 350 delegates to the meeting were farmers from Fayette County selected as delegates and alternates selected at this association's annual meeting here last January 27. The delegates chosen then were: Glenn L. Smith, A. F. Ervin, Harry Silcott, John Cannon, Percie Kennell, Wayne Shobe, Homer Wilson, Howard Hopkins, A. B. Clifton, Roscoe Duff, Dudley Roth, Verne Wilson, Russell Beatty, Forrest Briggs, R. C. Belt, Charles Haigler, Verne Roehn, Virtus Kruse, George Cline, Jean Nisley, Maurice Sollars, Ralph Nisley, Chester James, W. W. Montgomery, John Baughn, Hazel Moyer and Delbert Morris. The alternates were: Beryl Cavine, Robert Cannon, Harold Zimmerman, Harry R. Allen, Ellsworth Vannorsdall, Ralph Braden, Dale Wilson, Willard Brider and Justine Owens.

Officers from the Washington C. H. and South Charleston branches of the association at the meeting were: Howard Nessell, William Mace, William Johnson, Boyd Butz, Walter Finley and Joseph Alleman. The highlight of the association meeting here was the election of officers and selection of delegates and the report of the manager which showed that livestock valued at nearly $6,000,000 was handled by the stockyards here last year.

The meeting in Columbus was scheduled to get under way at 10 A. M. The business meeting, highlighted by the election of the directors, was the first thing on the program with luncheon at 12:30 P. M. for members and invited guests with the directors' meeting and dinner to follow.

Ezra T. Benson, executive secretary of the national council of farmer cooperatives of Washington C. H., was the principal speaker. Other speakers on the program included: L. B. Mann of the Farm Credit Administration, T. O. Wilson, secretary of the National Livestock Producers Association in Chicago; B. B. Brumley of McComb, O., president of the association there, and G. G. Ketner, secretary-treasurer of the association, who was to outline plans for cooperative efforts among stockmen.

Members of the association here said it had surpassed all records for volume, value of livestock marketed, low marketing costs and total member savings last year.

The association's operations cover 20 states, it was said, but its activities are principally in Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Indiana. A total of 1,789,166 head of livestock with a value of $52,510,032 was handled during the year with a net saving of $101,004, a statement said.

ALBERT DANIELS TO SPEAK HERE

VFW Good Fellowship Meet To Be Thursday

Hon. Albert C. Daniels, state senator from the fifth-sixth district, is slated as the star speaker Thursday night when the V. F. W. lodge here meets in Memorial Hall for a statewide good-fellowship program. The program, open to the public, will begin at 8 P. M. A potluck supper for lodge members and their families is scheduled for 6:30 P. M.

Daniels, now serving his eighth consecutive term as adjutant of the state D. A. V., was, at one time, state commander of the organization. His interest in veterans' affairs resulted in his championing of legislation on behalf of returning servicemen and their dependents. He also advocates rehabilitation of World War I and II veterans.

Past V. F. W. Commander Howard Burnett will be master of ceremonies on the program which will include brief speeches by L. C. Coffman, Glenn Murphy, D. A. V. commander, Herbert Wilson, commander of Paul H. Hughes Post 25, American Legion and Allen Sells, V. F. W. commander.

Music and group singing on the program will be directed by Laris Hard.

MADISON MILLS BOY IS GERMAN WAR PRISONER

Sgt. Harold Eugene Lindsey Was Previously Reported Missing in Action

Sgt. Harold Eugene Lindsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lindsey, formerly of Madison Mills, who was reported missing in action in December, is today a German prisoner of war, it is reported.

A sister-in-law of Sgt. Lindsey, Mrs. Paul Lindsey of Mt. Sterling, learned he is a prisoner via shortwave, it was reported. His parents, living now at 356 Pearl Street, Leipsic, in northern Ohio, moved from Madison Mills a year ago.

Sgt. Lindsey, 25, was a veteran of 15 bombing missions over the Third Reich as a bombardier, when he was reported missing. A graduate of Madison Mills High School, Sgt. Lindsey had been in the army nearly two years when he was taken prisoner.

PVT. LYON BELIEVED IN AFRICAN HOSPITAL

Pvt. Jesse Lyon, son of Mrs. Essa Heath, 219 East Circle Avenue, doesn't know yet his mother has learned he was wounded January 6 in Italy, he hasn't received mail from home for a month.

In the two letters he's written since the War Department notified Mrs. Heath her son was "seriously wounded," he's made no mention of his wound. Now in North Africa, his mother believes he is in a base hospital, although Pvt. Lyon gave her no linking other than to say "they've been moving me around a lot."

Trying to keep his family from worrying about him, he inserted sentences like "I am feeling all right" in his letters. Apparently Pvt. Lyon is recovering satisfactorily, since both letters were in his own handwriting, Mrs. Heath said.
